13TH JUNE — SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

COLLECT

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

FIRST READING: Ezekiel 17. 22-24

A reading from the book of the prophet Ezekiel Thus says the Lord God: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind. All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the Lord have spoken; I will accomplish it.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PSALM 92. 1-4, 12-14

Response: It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord

It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord, and to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
To tell of your loving-kindness early in the morning and of your faithfulness in the night season. R

On the psaltery and on the lyre and to the melody of the harp.
For you have made me glad by your acts, O Lord; and I shout for joy because of the works of your hands. R

The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree, and shall spread abroad like a cedar of Lebanon.
Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. R

They shall still bear fruit in old age; they shall be green and succulent;
That they may show how upright the Lord is, my rock, in whom there is no fault. R

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 5. 6-10, 14-17

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters, we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord— for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, Alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learned from my Father.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mark 4. 26-34

Such a large crowd gathered around Jesus that he got into a boat and began to teach them using many parables. Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.'

He also said, 'With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.' With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Lord God, in this bread and wine you give us food for body and spirit. May the eucharist renew our strength and bring us health of mind and body.

POST COMMUNION

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Churchyard Project

This week we are welcoming Year 6 pupils from St John's School for a series of activities based around the churchyard. They will learn about the history and spirituality of the churchyard, explore science and natural history topics related to the churchyard and, at the end of the week, complete the construction of our woodland school in the area opposite the church. This will then be able to be used for a range of different church and school activities.

The Bishop of Lewes, The Rt Revd Will Hazlewood has now been to St John's several times. Bishop Will is coming to celebrate Mass next Sunday (20 June/Trinity 3).

Many thanks also to Fr David for celebrating for us today.

CHRISTIAN BASICS COURSE

This is a short course for those who would like to know more about the Christian faith. All sessions take place at 5.15 pm on Sundays in the Church Hall. They last for 45 minutes, followed by Evening Prayer (6-6.30 pm). This week we will be exploring the Ten Commandments and their continued relevance for Christian life today.
